A DECK TO REDISCOVER THE MAGIC

An inexplicable coincidence, a tiny stroke of good luck, a dream coming true, a flower that blooms out of season... Magic is everywhere, hidden in the creases of the world. But often, the frenetic haste of everyday life, unawareness, problems, and distractions that bombard us every day prevent us from seeing it and feeling its essence, and therefore of enjoying the possibilities it offers.

The deck you hold in your hands was created for this very reason: to help you recognize the magic around you, to search for the magical potential hidden in your life and use it to explore your most intimate and profound sides. Tarot cards are, in fact, tools for interpreting the reality of universal experiences because, by speaking directly to our subconscious, they take inspiration from the communal narrative.

As part of a social group of individuals, each human being possesses a system of languages and origin stories to be shared with others and passed down through the generations. The symbols that inhabit our subconscious and define our way of seeing things—archetypes—come from this very collec-

THE HERMIT

IX

The Hermit is the card of waiting, of patience, of pondered reflection on the past while considering the choices of the future. Disinterested in material aspects and concentrating on the spiritual ones, they are not afraid of the dark, as they possess the light of knowledge which, dispersing the shadows, guides them toward full self-awareness.

The Hermit knows that power also resides in how you manage moments of solitude and feelings of being lost, fertile ground for inner searching and personal growth. They know the road to take, as they never leave anything to chance.

The Hermit announces that it is time for reflection and gathering, time to investigate your own shadows honestly and wisely. Projects need to be analyzed and structured, without worrying about how long it will take to finish them.

THE WHEEL OF FORTUNE

X

The beginning and end of cycles continue in rapid succession. Everything is ready to turn on a dime, chaotically and unpredictably. Events happen, seasons pass, and unavoidable destiny arrives.

Those who ride the Wheel are able centaurs, capable of quickly walking the paths of fate and taking unknown turns. Fearless and aware of the transience of life, they are constantly on the move and know that the end of the road is not really the end, merely a new beginning.

Karma has been set in motion, and the energies are working in a perpetual movement that leads to a fortuitous route.

JUSTICE

XI

When faced with injustice, the important thing to do is ask yourself, "What is the correct thing to do?"

Justice hosts a congregation of individuals who decide to take on their own destiny; people who perceive the responsibility of change in the name of a higher ethical ideal. The citizens, however, do not use their energy in a hostile manner, but direct their magical potential to attempt to transform pre-existing legislation into one that is more respectful of equality and collective harmony.

To change the world, first you must change yourself: a difficult aim to fulfill, one that requires an awareness of your own social responsibility. You need to ask questions, analyze the objectives you want to concentrate on, and reflect on what is right and wrong. Then, the actions will speak for themselves.
