Dedication and Gratitude

I'd like to dedicate this deck to every one of you amazing, unique soul sisters and brothers out there who are opening your hearts and souls to reconnect to the Divine Nature of All Life and the Oneness of All. Namaste

Deep gratitude to all who have supported, encouraged, inspired and shared their love with me on my journey. It's impossible to name all of you. Special gratitude and love to my wonderful husband, Kevin who has always encouraged me to follow my bliss; to Kim, Adino, Lesley and Henry, whose love and support has helped make this deck a reality; to very special friends—Doreen, my soul sister, who through unconditional love continues to show me the beauty and limitlessness of my own Soul; Sue, whose unwavering support and encouragement has helped me blossom and grow; Marion, from whom I learned to trust the flow of my own Divine Spirit; and Susanne whose incredible strength and perseverance has shown me that nothing is impossible.

Much love to you all xxx

Introduction

Prepare to be taken to multidimensional depths you have possibly not experienced before! Visions will seemingly come alive and evolve out of the images. Trust that what you see, feel or sense is what your soul needs in that moment. Remember, no experience is ever the same...as your moods, your experiences, your understandings change, so will your Journey to Source be different too, even from one day to the next!

This is not a conventional divination deck that offers explicit meanings for each card. Rather, it's an experiential deck that will take you on a journey deep within, to the place where Source resides within your very essence. It will take you to an inner landscape of an altered reality, to a higher plane of existence where you will meet yourself in the presence of Beings of Light, of your Higher Self, of Source. This journey of discovery will introduce you to your unique truth. This deck is a journey back to Self!

It is all about connecting you with the Cosmos, Source, Spirit and your Higher Self through frequencies and energies! An interplay of color, shape and pattern—sacred geometry and fractals. This deck contains frequencies and energies brought into visual form through visionary artworks manifested in dreams, meditations and visions by the artist over a period of three years. Words will never be adequate to transmit the information that comes through these visionary images on the cards, especially the portal meditation cards.

The messages for each card has been offered up as a starting point for those who feel they need a little guidance to begin with. However, I strongly recommend that if it feels comfortable for you, to initially use these cards as a meditative tool before referring to the guidebook for individual ‘meanings.’ Perhaps first use the keywords to give you a point of departure. Most likely, after starting to work with the deck, you will discover you do not need the guidance offered. You will receive the information you need at the time, which of course can and will change over time as you work deeper and deeper with these frequencies. Allow the images, colors, patterns and frequencies to take you into and through the cards, toward alternative realities. Once you are more familiar and comfortable with the cards, you may wish to invite the frequencies to come out through the cards and come 'alive.' Bear in mind however, that at any time from when you begin using these cards, this may occur automatically. Once you've experienced the images of the cards in this way, this connection can occur more rapidly and instinctively thereafter. Hence, the cards can be used to step into the energy of another reality or to call the energy out into this reality, i.e. as that of a portal.

Before working with these cards, set up your sacred space. After finding a comfortable spot, cleanse and clear it. Remember to ground and protect yourself as well, using whatever rituals, ceremonies or practices you are familiar with. Call in your guides, angels, Higher Self, spirit, God, and beings of light (which may include spiritual helpers such as loved ones who have crossed over) to hold the space for you while you journey into these new realms. Cleanse your cards too and any sacred object you may wish to use along with them i.e. a crystal or a piece of jewelry, etc. Remember to always express love and gratitude when your experience is complete. It is recommended that you take enough time after the experience to sit in silence, to journal and integrate the energies, though this will continue to occur over the following hours, days or perhaps even longer.

The deck is made up of the following card groups:

13 chakra cards .....	cards 1-13
2 angelic cards .....	cards 14-15
2 ground and balance portal/ meditation cards .....	cards 16-17
9 meditation cards* .....	cards 18-26
13 portal cards* .....	cards 27-39

*Although the meditation cards were created to take you into meditative states and the portal cards were designed to transport you to alternative states of reality, the meditation and portal cards are interchangeable and can be used as both meditation or portal cards. As you gain confidence with your experiences with this deck, you will intuitively be shown this.

Spreads and How to Use the Cards

There are a number of ways I suggest you use these cards. However, if you prefer to use them as you would a conventional oracle deck to start with, that too is fine. If you wish to use the cards in this way, start by focusing on a question or issue you want to receive guidance with. Then draw one or more cards either by the shuffling method or by spreading all the cards out, face down on your cleansed surface and intuitively picking the card/s.

NB: Please ground yourself well before using this deck. Either use your own method for grounding or use the grounding card #16.

When using any of the cards in this deck as portals, I recommend you set a 'declaration of intent.' This establishes the purpose for which you'll be using the portal. Ensure it is concise—short and to the point and for the highest good. A declaration of intent has been provided in the description of each of the portal cards should you not wish to devise your own when starting to work with this deck. Card 39 can be used to assist you in creating your own declarations of intent. A declaration of intent can simply be—"I ask that guidance, in alignment of my highest good, be shown to me now."

Single Card Draw

A single card can be drawn daily, weekly or when you feel you need guidance for the present. Focus on a specific question or issue you would like guidance with, then draw a single card. Either refer to the guidance provided in this book for the card or sit with the card and look 'through' it into the shapes, patterns and colors. Allow yourself to sense the energy within the image. Try closing your eyes for a while and then opening them again to gaze at the image. See where your attention is taken, what aspect of the card jumps out at you and work with that impression initially.

Multiple Card Draw

Multiple card draws can be done in the same manner as the single card draw, but try to look for connections between the cards drawn and see where sequences may occur between the first card and consecutive cards.

Single Card Draw—Grouped

For a grouped card draw, always include the two angelic cards and the two ground and balance cards. (These I will refer to as the stabilizing cards). Focus on a specific question or issue and draw a single card. If you draw one of the four stabilizing cards, draw another card. If you draw another stabilizing card, sit with both and be open to guidance from them.

Perhaps you are not meant to receive guidance at this moment from the group of cards you selected. Greater grounding is possibly needed.

There are three groups you can separate cards into using the above instructions:

1. Chakra Cards
2. Meditation Cards
3. Portal Cards

Although it is fine to draw two or more cards for a grouped chakra draw, it is advisable to stick to a single card when doing a grouped meditation or portal card draw.

Once you have drawn the cards intuitively, I suggest you begin using them in the following way. Whether you have drawn one or more cards, use this process for each card drawn. Hold the first card at arm's length in front of your face. Gaze at the card and allow your eyes to move across the image in whatever direction feels natural to you. Gradually bring the card closer to your face, continuing to stare at it. Repeat this until it seems as if you are looking 'through' the card. If there seems to be a specific point in the image you are looking through or keep getting drawn to, use this spot as a focal point and allow yourself to go into a meditative state. Sit with the card in this way until you begin to receive messages through one or more of your psychic senses:

Clairvoyance — Seeing

Clairaudience — Hearing

Clairsentience — Feeling

Claircognizance — Knowing

Clair empathy — Emotion

Again, the above guidance serves as a starting point. When you feel comfortable with the cards, please follow your own intuitive guidance in creating your personal card draws/layouts and methods for using the cards. These cards have been designed to transport you to higher states of connection and awareness in finding your own path of spiritual growth and truth.

Reversed Cards

Personally, I do not use reversals and have not included reversed interpretations for the cards. However, when a card does come up reversed, I feel it does need to be taken note of. I usually ask myself the following questions when this happens:

- a. Does the meaning of this card need to be looked at from a different perspective from how I would normally look at it?
- b. Am I too unsettled? Do I need to ground and center myself before interpreting the message this card carries?
- c. What aspect of my life is out of kilter, that this card can give me guidance for, in order to find greater balance?

The 13 Chakra Cards

Our energy up to now has been focused around the seven basic chakras—root to crown—based on an ancient Indian healing system. However, there are many more chakras, which we are beginning to activate as we awaken and align to our soul and its oneness with the Cosmos. Awakening to a fifth dimensional reality, these once dormant chakras are now channels for higher wisdom and energy to awaken our full energy bodies. There is a lot of debate and conflicting beliefs as to the colors and names of the ‘new’ chakras and whether these new energies affect the traditional seven chakras. Personally, my experience over the past few years has been the following:

The traditional chakras are elevated by the new chakras. And whether you choose to use their traditional rainbow colors or believe new colors are now relevant, either choice still works. The key is your intention based on intuition when working with them. I have however, at times sensed a gold or silver sheen emanating from the traditional seven chakras. In your energy work, as your chakras align and are activated, the colors will automatically adjust if need be. Trust your intuition and guidance.

For this deck, I have chosen to include the 13 chakras with which I have had experience. If you already have a system you follow and want to continue using it, that is fine. These images are interchangeable as some of the new chakras may have different names than what you know, but their energy carries the same frequency.

The 13 chakras included in this deck are the seven traditional chakras and the six 5th dimensional chakras.

The Seven Traditional Chakras

1 • Root Chakra

Color : Red

Element : Earth

Geometry : Hexahedron (cube)

Keywords: grounding, support, survival, self-mastery, abundance, heat, motion, stimulation, activation, excitement, power

Challenges: anger, danger, destruction, insecurity, domination, materialism, ego, selfishness

New aspects: sustainability, partnership, unity

You are here, in the physical realm right now and although you are a spiritual being you need to embody all that this plane of existence has to offer in order to live life to its fullest. Know that once you gratefully accept your physical self and the world as it is in each moment, you will be supported by Gaia and the Universe. Become more aware of all that makes up the natural world around you. The reflection of a flower in a drop of dew; the warmth of the Sun on your skin; the beauty of nature awakening in the spring as well as the beauty of nature entering a time of slumber in the autumn. Nature is abundant in its display of the vast diversity in which life is able to present itself. Show up and present your unique self in the dance of life.

2 • Sacral Chakra

Color : Orange

Element : Water

Geometry : *Icosahedron
(12-sided triangle)*

Keywords: *creativity, feelings,
intuition, empathy*

Challenges: resentment, shyness, guilt, aggression, manipulation

New aspects: fellowship, co-creation

Your sensitivity and intuition are signs of your awareness of life. It is a gift that you can use to co-create along with the Universe and bring about change on Earth on a sustainable level. Your ability to sense and to feel not only other people but your surroundings too allows you to tune in deeper to what is needed to shift humanity. Creation is the key—whatever you do, do it from your gut—your center of creativity. Co-creation cannot be birthed from the mind; it has to be an intuitive process that is filtered through the heart. Allow your empathy to fuel new ways of being, rather than letting it overwhelm you.

3 • Solar Plexus Chakra

Color : Yellow

Element : Fire

Geometry : Tetrahedron (triangle)

Keywords: joy, confidence, skill, strength

Challenges: self-conscious, confusion, insecurity, workaholic, superiority, inferiority

New aspects: bliss, leadership, acceptance

You are no longer expected to stay small. Every single sentient being has the right to fully express themselves in living the life they were created to live. It is time to step into your power, but that power must be garnered through the heart and not the ego. Finding your bliss in life allows you to step confidently and courageously into your place of power. Do what you love, not what society deems is suitable or acceptable for you. No one but yourself truly knows what brings you the inner joy that feeds your soul and lifts your heart. It may take some time to find that bliss, but never stop seeking new ways of discovering and expressing it.

4 • Heart Chakra

Color : Green and pink

Element : Air

Geometry : Octahedron

(eight-sided triangle)

Keywords: balance, empathy, unconditional love, self-love, compassion

Challenges: indecisive, unloved, self-pity, critical, possessive, depressive

New aspects: oneness, universal love

Until you are able to know unconditional love for self, you are limiting the infinite love of the Universe from expressing itself through you. Love for self needs nothing but open acceptance for who you are right now. Be open to allowing yourself to love yourself, irrespective of past experiences. As you begin to feel this love for self, universal love flows through you, strengthening the feeling of oneness and with that sense of oneness, you are able to express unconditional love out into the world.

5 • Throat Chakra

Color : Blue

Element : Sound

Geometry : Octahedron

(eight-sided triangle)

Keywords: artistic, centered, understanding, expressive

Challenges: inconsistent, cowardice, unreliable, arrogant, self-righteous

New aspects: divine tones, soul voice

It is time for your voice to be heard. Not the quiet voice that has been subdued by belief and dogma, but the strong, clear voice that is able to sing the song of your soul. Creatively express your deep inner fire through voicing, intoning, chanting or singing. Do it in the privacy of your own sacred space or join other souls in circles and groups whose confident
